

INTRODUCTORY NOTE

Achille Deodato, CEO

Italian national, he studied in Madrid and Vienna before graduating in Business Economics in Rome in 2007 and completing studies with an MBA at the Lausanne IMD School in 2014.

In 2003 he started working at KPMG SpA in Rome in the field of business consulting, and then joined the UN FAO Agency in 2006. In 2007 he was appointed Secretary General of the first Master in Communication for Development at the European University of Rome and Regina Apostolorum.

In June 2008 he moved to Geneva to work as Project Manager for a private bank, where he will remain until the end of 2017 covering various roles:

- Project Manager
- M&A Analyst
- Coordinator for valuations, due diligences, mergers and acquisitions
- Marketing and Communication Manager
- Group & Business Control Manager in charge for internal control, compliance, audit and risk management
- Board Member of the Italian subsidiary of the Bank
- Member of the Executive Committee, Head of Private Banking and Business Development
- Secretary General of the Board of Directors

In April 2018 he joined the firm BRP Bizzozero & Partners with the role of Project Manager. In August 2018 he was also appointed Chief Operating Officer of the digital identity provider Procivis AG, heading operations, legal and regulatory affairs.

In November 2019 he joined Indigita SA as Chief Executive Officer.

He lives in Zurich and speaks fluently Italian, French, Spanish, English and German.

Contact: Achille Deodato, achille.deodato@indigita.ch